

Tigh-Na-Mara In the Lap of Luxury

IS IT POSSIBLE FOR a place to be both rustic and luxurious? At Tigh-Na-Mara Seaside Spa Resort and Conference Centre, located on 22 acres of forest on Vancouver Island, West Coast ruggedness blends with world-class elegance to create a truly unique destination. Every building features authentic log construction and beautifully appointed rooms. With 192 accommodation units, 13,000 square feet of meeting space and a 20,000-square-foot spa—the largest in British Columbia—Tigh-Na-Mara is a wonder of design, comfort and ambience.

Log-cabin rooms with lavish details

The Parksville, B.C. resort runs one of Vancouver Island's largest summer recreation programs including swimming lessons, yoga on the beach, wine tastings, and cooking classes. Located on 3 kilometres of sandy beach, Tigh-Na-Mara is only a short drive from golf courses and other attractions including the Horne Lake Caves, Milner Gardens and Coombs Country Market.

Whether you're planning a family vacation, a romantic getaway, a group event or corporate seminar, Tigh-Na-Mara has all the amenities for a spectacular experience. Renowned for their friendly staff and unique features, such as Christmas trees in every guestroom at Christmas, it's no wonder that guests make comments like this: "I have never felt so at home, even in my own home!"
